Don DeWaay Named to Barron's Top 100 Financial Advisors

First Iowan Named to the List

Barron's Magazine, one of the most respected financial publications in the world, released their 2009 list of the Top 100 Financial Advisors in the United States and Don DeWaay of Clive, Iowa was named to the list. Coming in at #58, DeWaay was the first Iowan to ever be named to the prestigious list.

"The competition for this honor is formidable and too often professionals in the Midwest are overlooked for recognition," said DeWaay. "That's what makes this honor all the more special."

DeWaay Capital Management has gained notoriety for its wealth portfolio management services to affluent clients, corporations and charitable foundations. Recognized as one of the elite independent financial advisory firms in the country, DeWaay Capital Management has grown in recent years to manage over $650 million for clients throughout the United States.

DeWaay was also one of only 10 "independent" advisors named to the list in a group dominated by large national wire house firms.

"Independent advisor firms are a breed apart and I believe they represent the future of this industry," said DeWaay. "Unlike the large wire house firms, these professionals are driven entrepreneurs who built their practices with personal vision, principals and passion. That is rare in an often stodgy industry. I'm extremely grateful for the opportunity to represent the universe of independent advisors across the country."

DeWaay was also named to Barron's Top Iowa Advisor list and was the only Iowan on Medical Economics Magazine's Top 150 Advisors for Doctors in 2009. In 2008 he was named in Forbes Magazine as one of Goldline Research's Top 10 Most Dependable Advisors in the Midwest and received the Better Business Bureau's Integrity Award.
